

THE DAILY CLARION.

Sunday : : : : : December 9, 1866

Matters Matrimonial.

When I was a little slip of a girl,
Too ardent and young for a bride,
The men, as I passed, would exclaim "pretty dear!"
Which I must say, I thought rather rude;
Rather rude, so I did
Which, I must say, I thought rather rude.

However, said I, when I'm once in my teens,
They'll sure cease to worry me then;
But as I grew older, so they grew bolder—
Such impudent things are the men;
Are the men, are the men,
Such impudent things are the men.

But of all the bold things I would ever suppose,
(Yet how could I take it amiss?)
Was that of my impudent cousin last night,
When he actually gave me a kiss.
Ay, a kiss, so he did;
When he actually gave me a kiss.

I quickly reproved him, but all, in such tones,
That ere we were half through the gleam,
My anger to smother, he gave me another—
Such strange, coaxing things are the men.
Are the men, are the men;
Such strange, coaxing things are the men.

Rev. Dr. C. K. Marshall has written a long and earnest appeal in favor of the education of the "children of our former slaves" by our own people, and the cultivation of the kindest feelings towards the freedmen. It appeared in the Vicksburg Herald, of the 1st, and on the 2d it announces not only its own approval of it, but that the United States Gen. Wood, commanding in Mississippi, would send it North, to show that the spirit of hostility to the freedmen and to their advancement, usually charged upon the South, did not exist.

The Menken—as they call the lovely Adah in London—is to make a provincial starring tour with Manager Swanborough, brother of the beautiful Syren of the Strand, before she comes out at the Theater du Prince Imperial, at Paris, where she is to be one of the transatlantic features of the Great Exposition season of 1867, when the Emperor gathers around him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them.

A MAIL AT LAST.—Mr. Lutrick, the contractor for carrying the mail from here to Williamsburg, has entered upon the discharge of his duties, and we will hereafter have a semi-weekly mail to all the offices on the route. We congratulate our old friends in Simpson and Covington on their being brought from darkness to light—Brandon Republican.

SOMETHING NEW.—A project is said to be on foot for laying out in Washington city a park fashioned and divided so as to make a map of the United States. The plan is, we suppose, a novel one for a park, and it is certainly a happy one, says an exchange. If well executed it will be one of the most interesting objects of the national capital.

Last Thursday Hon. Clement C. Clay and his wife paid a visit to Jefferson Davis. The same day H. Rives Pollard and J. Marshall Hana, formerly of the Richmond Examiner, arrived at Fortress Monroe on a visit to Mr. Davis, but were refused admission into the fortress.

A slip from the office of the Eufaula (Ala.) News informs us of a disastrous fire in that city, on the 27th ult., causing a loss of $75,000 to $100,000 including the office of the News, very little of the material being saved. The proprietors of the News are particularly unfortunate, their loss amounting to from $10,000 to 15,000, without insurance.

Among the new bills introduced in the House of Representatives, yesterday, was one by Mr. Boutwell, directing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell $2,000,000 of gold every Monday, in parcels not exceeding $10,000 each. One-fifteenth of one per cent. is the commission allowed to the person making the sale—which would give $1,333 33 for the half hours work.

MEDICAL.

IN OFFERING OUR BITTERS TO THE

Southern Public, we have no hesitancy in asserting their superiority over any Northern production in our market. In their device

ment they are purely Southern—compounded with a special adaptability to the various types of stomachic derangements prevalent in our climate.

It is a gentle stimulant to the system after undergoing a severe illness.

It is a cure for Dyspepsia.

It assists Digestion.

It cures Diarrhea and Cholera Albus.
